Billet pistol grip keeps you relaxed during long throttle time.

Whether you have standard or Livorsi's new billet controls, this easy add-on will keep your throttling arm relaxed and strain-free. Long periods of throttling time can wear down the most experienced throttleman, but every boater will experience extended driving time with Livorsi's billet pistol grip.

This aircraft style grip built with strong, solid billet aluminum, fits twin engine throttles and makes for much shorter control movement while going through rough waters.

Available in 9 powdercoated colors, this grip takes just minutes to install and will keep your arm at ease a whole lot longer.
